WOMEN IN DIGITAL ASSETS FORUM 2025

Program Overview

Women in Digital Assets Forum - Third Annual Event

We are thrilled to announce that the third annual Women in Digital Assets Forum is moving to a new and exciting location—New York City! This year, we are honored to host our event in partnership with Grant Thornton at their prestigious New York City offices. As always, we welcome both women and male allies in the digital assets community to come together as innovators, leaders, and mentors for an extraordinary afternoon of insightful panel discussions and unparalleled networking opportunities.

Why Attend?

This is more than just an event; it's a celebration of the incredible contributions women are making in shaping the future of digital assets. It's a space for learning, collaboration, and recognition—a testament to the power of women supporting women in this dynamic industry.

By joining us, you become part of a movement that highlights the triumphs, innovations, and groundbreaking initiatives led by women who are breaking barriers and redefining the digital assets space. This forum provides a platform to amplify voices, exchange ideas, and engage in conversations that drive meaningful change.
